

Population: in 2016, the estimated resident population of Aboriginal people in NSW was 265,685, representing 3.4% of the total NSW population and 33.3% of the Aboriginal population of Australia.

Population growth: by 2026, the NSW Aboriginal population is expected to grow to 282,962 people.

Age: in 2016, the median age of the NSW Aboriginal population was 22 years, compared with 38 years for the non-Aboriginal population. 53% of the Aboriginal population was aged 24 years and below, compared with 31% of the non-Aboriginal population.

Location: in 2016, 46.3% of the NSW Aboriginal population lived in major cities, 34.5% in inner regional areas, 15.5% in outer regional areas, 2.8% in remote, and 0.9% in very remote areas.

Population mobility: between 2011 and 2016, an estimated 9,645 Aboriginal people left NSW and an estimated 7,959 Aboriginal people moved into NSW.

Identification change: in 2016, 55,354 of the NSW Aboriginal population had not identified as Aboriginal in 2011, and 16,052 of those who had identified as Aboriginal in 2011 did not in 2016, resulting in a net inflow of 19.6%.

Life expectancy: Life expectancy at birth in 2015-17, for Aboriginal people in NSW is 70.9 years for males and 75.9 years for females, compared with 80.2 years for non-Aboriginal males and 83.5 years for non-Aboriginal females.

Infant mortality: between 2015 and 2017, the rate of infant mortality was 4.5 per 1,000 for Aboriginal infants, compared with 3.1 per 1,000 for non-Aboriginal infants.

Health: in 2014-15, 38.8% of NSW Aboriginal people assessed their own health as very good or excellent, compared with 56.3% of the NSW population. In the same period 31.3% of NSW Aboriginal people reported high to very high levels of psychological distress compared with 12.8% of the NSW population.

Disability: in 2016, the disability rate for Aboriginal people was 7.6% compared with 5.4% for the NSW population overall.

Transition to Primary School: in 2015, 34.1% of Aboriginal children were developmentally vulnerable on one or more domain on school entry, compared with 19.4% of non-Aboriginal children.

Reading and numeracy: between 2008 and 2018, there was a significant increase in the proportion of Aboriginal students who achieved the National Minimum Standard (NMS) in reading in Years 3 and 5 and in numeracy in Years 5 and 9. For non-Aboriginal students the significant increases across this time period were in the proportion of students in Years 3 and 5 scoring above the NMS in reading and students in Year 5 for numeracy.

Between 2017 and 2018 there was no statistically significant change in the proportion of non-Aboriginal or Aboriginal students achieving at or above the national minimum standard in either reading or numeracy. In 2018, there was a lower proportion of Aboriginal students achieving the NMS than non-Aboriginal students in reading and numeracy in all years assessed (Years 3, 5, 7 and 9).

Year 12 attainment: in 2016, 66% of Aboriginal people in NSW aged 20-24 years had completed Year 12 or higher, compared with 89% of the non-Aboriginal population.

Post-school education: in 2017, 2,811 Aboriginal people commenced university in NSW, compared with 972 Aboriginal students in 2004. In 2016 45% of Aboriginal people and 59% of non-Aboriginal people aged 15 years or over had a post school qualification.

Child protection: in 2017-18, Aboriginal children and young people in NSW were the subject of 20% (18,454) of all child protection reports. At 30 June 2018, Aboriginal children represented 39% (6,766) of all children in out-of-home-care.

Language: in 2016, less than 1% of Aboriginal people in NSW spoke an Aboriginal language at home, compared with 15% for the rest of Australia.

Community safety: in 2018, Aboriginal people in NSW were 3 times more likely to be a victim of assault compared with non-Aboriginal people.

Employment: in 2016, 46% of Aboriginal adults in NSW (15 years and over) were employed, compared with 59% of non-Aboriginal people.

Unemployment: in 2016, the unemployment rate in NSW for Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people was 15% and 6% of the total labour force, respectively. Unemployment amongst Aboriginal people was highest for 18-24 year olds, at 24%.

Self-employment: in 2011 8% of employed Aboriginal people in NSW were owner/managers or contributing family workers compared with 17% of the non-Aboriginal workforce. Between 2006 and 2011, there was a 33% increase in the number of Aboriginal employers.

Housing and home ownership: in 2016, 42% of Aboriginal households in NSW owned or were purchasing their home, compared with 65% of non-Aboriginal households.

Household income (equivalised): in 2014-15, the median weekly household income for Aboriginal households in NSW was $550, compared with $850 for non-Aboriginal households.

Incarceration: in 2018, Aboriginal people in NSW were 11.6 times more likely than non-Aboriginal people to be imprisoned; and 67% of Aboriginal people in prison in NSW had experienced prior imprisonment, compared with 46% of non-Aboriginal people. In the June quarter of 2018, Aboriginal 10-17 year olds were detained at 12.6 times the rate of non-Aboriginal young people (30.7 per 10,000 compared with 1.6).

² Median equivalised household income is not a measure of the total income of a household. It is a measure of the income a lone person in a household would need to have the same standard of living as the household in question (See Overcoming Indigenous Disadvantage Key Indicators 2016, p 4.81)
